ABSTRACT:

Today organizations are knowledge based and their success and survival depend on creativity, innovation, discovery and inventiveness. MSMEs have to learn and imbibe the process of innovation, in their day to day working, to remain competitive. Instead of looking for support from other agencies, they have to find their own ways of overcoming barriers.

KEY WORDS: Micro, small and medium industries, economy, India.