IMPROVEMENT OF ENGLISH PRONUNCIATION: SOME SUGGESTIONS

VANISHREE ADONI

M.A.(LIT), M.A.(LIT), M.A.(ELT), M.Phil(ELT),
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ENGLISH
HUMANITIES & SCIENCES DEPT.
JAYA PRAKASH NARAYAN COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, DHARMAPUR,
MAHABUBNAGAR

ABSTRACT:

English language teaching situation presents a mixed picture from top to very low level in terms of teacher proficiency and the exposure of pupil to English in and outside school, which is the availability of English in the environment of language acquisition. The title of the present chapter goes suggestion to improve the standards of English; one can notice many programmes, by government and private school managements to train pre-service and in-service teachers. Since many years, many changes can be noticed in teaching methods, approaches, by eminent professional but still the problem of English is not yet solved. So, not there should be drastic change in the curriculum and syllabus to teach English at primary school? The answer is, the adoption of Communicative based teaching. English should be taught as mother tongue. A teacher should be given full liberty to teach the language, as English is language, which should be taught not only in the classroom but also outside the class.

KEY WORDS: English, language, teaching.