BEST PRACTICES OF MATSYODARI COLLEGE LIBRARY, JALNA

DR. GARAD MADHUKAR D.

LIBRARIAN
MATSYODARI MAHAVIDYALAYA,
JALNA – 431203 (MAHARASHTRA)

ABSTRACT

This paper is a case study of Matsyodari College Library, Jalna (MH). The Paper highlights on the role of academic libraries, challenges in academic libraries and the impact of ICT on them in the present context and how it can be overcome by using the best practices. The process that are adopted in the academic libraries are discussed and concludes that with the adoption of the best practices in academic libraries there will be a continuous improvement and overall performance in the institution / organization. The paper describes in detail the services & facilities provide to readers, development of automation procedures and applied tools and to identify the status of library.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to offer special thanks to our beloved Respected Principal, Dr. Rajendra Gaikwad for their Farsightedness and Benevolence in successfully implementation of Matsyodari College, Jalna.

REFERENCES

