KASHMIR: UNRESOLVED ISSUE BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN

VIPPAN SHARMA
M.PHILL SCHOLAR
MEWAR UNIVERSITY, CHITTORGARH, RAJASTHAN.

ABSTRACT:

The study observed that a lot of good steps are taken by Indian Govt. to solve the issue, to maintain the peace process, such as Samjhota express, Srinagar-Muzafarabad bus service, Poonch-Rawalkote Bus service and many more. Every time Pakistan took some unexpected steps which block the possible solutions whether it’s in 1948, 1965 or 1999. History is the biggest witness in front of whole world. Along with this on ground level there are no problems which are facing Kashmiri only some Anti-national elements ruins the situation some time in Kashmir.

KEYWORDS: Kashmir, India, Pakistan, peace, issue.

WORKS CITED

